As it was apprehended that the Populace intended a Reſcue, two Companies of Dragoons, a ſtrong Detachment of the Militia in the Neighbourhood, and another of the Garriſon, were ordered, contrary to Cuſtom, to guard the Criminals to the Place of Execution; but no Diſturbance happened. THE Tripoli Ambaſſador, from his natural Inclination to Juſtice, having freely and voluntarily paſſed from the Privilege his Excellency was and is intituled to, of protecting his Domeſticks and Servants from Arreſts for Debts, and having ſignified this his Reſolution, firſt, by giving Notice to the Publick, by ſeveral Advertiſements in the Daily Advertiſer; and afterwards, when ſome of his Servants had been ſeduced by ſome idle and diſorderly People, and carried to Houſes of bad Repute and great Expence, and fearing they ſhould contract Debts, he, in farther Manifeſtation of his firm Reſolution not to protect ſuch Servants, did, by the ſaid Daily Advertiſer of the 9th of September 1748, acquaint the Publick, that he would not protect any of his ſaid Servants from any Arreſts or Proceedings of Law on Account of their juſt and lawful Debts, or otherwiſe. Notwithſtanding of which Indulgence, certain Perſons have moſt induſtriouſly employed themſelves, in going from Houſe to Houſe, to find out the ſaid Servants Debts, and have adviſed the Creditors to draw up a Petition, which they have laid before his Grace the Duke of Bedford, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State, complaining that his Excellency owed them the ſeveral Sums therein mentioned, whereby they have moſt falſely and wrongfully injured the Honour and Character of the ſaid Tripoli Ambaſſador, and made falſe Repreſentations to the ſaid Secretary of State. Therefore Notice is hereby given to the ſaid Perſons, that if they ſhall not make it appear, within eight Days from the Date hereof, that the ſaid Ambaſſador owes owes them as ſet forth in the ſaid Petition, preſented as aforeſaid, his Excellency, in Vindication of his own Honour and Character, will give Orders, that they be proſecuted according to Law; alſo, the ſaid Ambaſſador deſires, if any Perſon or Perſons have any juſt Demand upon him, that they will call at his Houſe in Suffolk Street by Charing Croſs, where they ſhall be immediately paid: And if any Perſon or Perſons can prove the Delivery of Goods to his Servants, by his Order, he will pay for the ſaid Goods, altho' he ſhould not have received them: And farther, he hereby again forbids all Perſons to Truſt his ſaid Servants, for tho' he will not protect them, yet neither will he pay their Debts; and deſires the Favour of all Perſons who ſhall hereafter furniſh him Goods, to ſend their Clerks or Servants to his Houſe with the ſame, and their Bills of Parcels diſcharged, where they ſhall be punctually paid, which has been his conſtant Practice ever ſince he reſided in this Kingdom.
